PRESS RELEASE

Deily, Mooney & Glastetter, LLP Changes Name to Deily & Glastetter, LLP

Expands Offerings to Include Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution Practice

Albany, N.Y., September 1, 2013 – Deily, Mooney & Glastetter, LLP, a regional law firm located in Albany, N.Y., providing multi-disciplinary commercial and business law services, has officially changed its name to Deily & Glastetter, LLP. Deily & Glastetter, LLP has announced that former Partner Martin A. Mooney is joining the Latham, N.Y. based law firm of Schiller & Knapp, LLP, effective September 1, 2013. Mooney will separate Deily & Glastetter, LLP's consumer bankruptcy operations and move his practice to Schiller & Knapp, LLP. "I'm excited to join Schiller & Knapp, LLP's consumer bankruptcy practice. There is a great deal of synergy between our two practices that will benefit our collective clients tremendously", said Mooney.

Deily & Glastetter, LLP also revealed today the formation of its Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution practice group, offering professional mediation and arbitration services of complex commercial matters, including commercial litigation, bankruptcy adversary proceedings and contested matters and out of court work-outs. Founding partner, Jonathan D. Deily, Esq., with extensive experience not only as a litigator but also as a mediation advocate, arbitrator and professional mediator will lead this practice group. "Alternative dispute resolution has become a widely used tool in commercial disputes, and we have the skills and experience to meet that demand," said Deily. Deily is a member of the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution and Advocacy and the American Bar Association Alternate Dispute Resolution Committee.

The Partners of Deily & Glastetter, LLP continue to implement a five year strategic plan focused on the firm's evolving role in assisting businesses and lenders in these changing economic times. "Our decision to separate from the consumer bankruptcy practice will allow us to dedicate our time, talent and valuable staff resources to the ever-changing needs of our commercial and business clients," said managing partner, Joann Sternheimer. "The changing business climate in our region also guided us in our decision to focus on our core commercial and business practices. We especially see a need for our experience with small to medium size businesses experiencing rapid growth. We can assist them with business matters ranging from asset purchases to complex litigation," said Sternheimer.

"The organization will benefit from this concentrated approach," said Deily. "The firm has been a leader in commercial litigation, business counseling, creditors' rights, and workouts for 25 years. The Deily & Glastetter, LLP name is synonymous with quality work, the highest ethical standards and integrated solutions for our clients," Deily added.

Deily & Glastetter, LLP has undertaken an extensive rebranding effort of its core business under the new name Deily & Glastetter, LLP, including creating a new logo and marketing messages. "This name change along with our long range planning better reflects the current and future direction of the firm." Sternheimer suggested. The firm's practice includes finding sound legal solutions for clients ranging from major financial institutions, asset based lenders, and Fortune 500 companies, to small businesses and entrepreneurs. The firm will also continue to represent bankruptcy trustees and creditors in commercial bankruptcy cases.

"This move allows both firms to leverage their abilities with prospective clients while continuing our client-centric focus on our existing relationships. It puts us in a better position to grow both organizations," said Mooney of the changes.

About The Firm

Founded in 1989, Deily & Glastetter, LLP (formerly Deily Mooney & Glastetter, LLP) is a regional law firm based in Albany, New York. Deily & Glastetter, LLP, has the legal and technological capabilities that clients expect of a large firm, yet we emphasize personal service in a manner normally associated with a small firm. Our experience in litigation and creditors' rights is substantial, but is only part of a multi-disciplinary business counseling capability. We frequently use creative dispute resolution strategies that help our clients achieve their business goals without resorting to litigation, but when called upon to do so we are prepared to try cases at the federal and state levels throughout the Northeast, and adjacent states.
